Dear Sir,

Subject: Credit points for IDA Journals

You are well aware that the Indian Dental Association has been bringing out, among others, two scientific journals, viz., Clinical Dentistry and Journal of Indian Dental Association (JIDA) devoted to clinical cases and original research-based articles respectively. In fact, these publications cover manuscripts on original dental research, case reports and literature reviews.

We would appreciate if DCI grants credit points to the authors whose articles are published in these journals on par with those journals of similar nature published in the country.

With best regards,

Yours sincerely

Dr Ashok Dhoble
Hon Secretary General
